

Reviews from my work at Anovisions

From Ron Redmond, Executive Director, Church Street Marketplace Business District:

Sheila has a superior command of the written word, is very organized and professional. Along with being exceedingly bright and quick, Sheila is also fun to work with. She would be a good collaborator in any organization and works very hard to ensure you're achieving your goals. I highly recommend Sheila!

From David Zook, Sr. Software Architect at LogicBlox

Thanks Sheila for your great work on my PhD Proposal! You meticulously went through the entire 50 or so pages of dense technical material, making helpful suggestions, even about technical topics that were completely new to you. I was able to make the document much more readable by rewording various explanations based on your feedback, not to mention perfecting the grammar, spelling and style. Thanks!"

And random quotes from clients over the years for editing and analysis work:

"I am finished and have my degree in hand as of last week. The completion date on the degree was October 31, 2012. I just want to thank you for all you have done to "frame" my work because it passed with just a few minor changes. You were a blessing to me, with your statically knowledge and your editing skills. I will be praying that God continues to be a blessing in your life and that you can use that gift he has awarded you with to bless others."

"Well, I am so grateful I met you and I thank you so much for all your help. YOU DID AN AWESOME JOB!!"

"All I can say is WOW! I'm so excited. "

"If you're writing your dissertation, do yourself a favor and let Sheila partner with you for the analysis and discussion. If you have to wash dishes, sell jewelry or forgo coffee [the fuel of all good doctoral students], do it. It will be one decision in your life you will never, never regret. No only with you be able eek every drop of meaning out of even the most feeble data set but you will so understand what it all means that stepping forward to your defense will feel like stepping out for a stroll on a warm spring afternoon..."
